Sustaining membership in NSNA is open to agencies, schools, and individuals. This special membership category offers opportunities to support the goals and purposes of NSNA. In addition to advancing NSNA and the future of nursing, sustaining members receive the following benefits:

- A full-year subscription (five issues) to IMPRINT, NSNA's official magazine.
- NSNA NEWS, published twice during the academic year.
- DEAN'S Notes, published five times during the academic year by A. J. Jannetti, Inc., contains information of interest to nursing education leaders and faculty.
- Recognition of agency/school sustaining members in Imprint, Deans' Notes and NSNA News.
- Student Injury and Illness Insurance Plan available to graduate nursing students, their eligible spouses, and dependents (available in most states).
- Discounts on NSNA publications and videotapes.
- Reduced rates for NSNA meetings, including the MidYear Conference and the Annual Convention.
- Use of Club Quarters facilities around the world at special rates. NSNA is a member of Club Quarters™, the latest concept for the hotel industry. Club Quarters are full service hotels for the exclusive use of members. They offer unique, user-friendly services for the business traveler in a club-like setting. Members pay the lowest rates for a quality hotel room in 11 prime big cities.

Additional School of Nursing Benefits:

- Recognition at opening ceremony and receive certificate for display at NSNA Convention.
- Free broadcast e-mail to faculty for conferences and available faculty positions.
- Logo link to your school on the NSNA Career Center (www.nsna.org).
- Choice of: Complimentary hard cover copy of "50 Years of the National Student Nurses Association," by Diane J. Mancino, EdD, RN, CAE.; or Video – Not for Ourselves But for Others – 50 Years of the NSNA.
- 25% discount on NSNA videos.

Individual Sustaining Membership

There's no better way to build a brighter future for nursing than by investing in NSNA. When you become a Sustaining Member, you'll be a part of a dynamic organization preparing future nurse leaders. NSNA reaches out to students with information, benefits, and a forum for involvement. Many of today's leaders and dedicated practicing nurses were members of NSNA.

NSNA at a Glance

NSNA is the largest independent, national nursing student organization in the United States.

About Membership in NSNA

Students are eligible for active membership in NSNA if they are enrolled in a state-approved program preparing for registered nurse licensure or registered nurse to baccalaureate degree in nursing program. Individuals not fitting either of the above categories are eligible for sustaining membership.

Programs

NSNA's programs and activities include: Leadership and professional development opportunities; NSNA Leadership University, legislation education programs; shared governance education; community health projects; Breakthrough to Nursing (recruitment into nursing); help with passing state boards; products and services discount programs; injury and illness insurance for members; and career development opportunities. NSNA has an annual convention in the spring and career planning conference every fall. Sustaining Membership dues help to support NSNA's programs and activities.
